Re: United States v. Rafat Amirov, et al.,

S4 22 Cr. 438 (CM)

Dear Judge McMahon:

The Government writes on behalf of the parties to respectfully and jointly request that the pretrial conference scheduled for May 2, 2023, at 2:00 p.m., be adjourned for approximately four months, to September 13, 2023. Since the parties were last before Your Honor, the Government has continued discovery productions to defense counsel and the defendants, including voluminous productions of electronically stored information and other evidence obtained pursuant to numerous search warrants executed in the course of this investigation, significant portions of which contain information in multiple foreign languages. The Government anticipates additional discovery productions will be made on a rolling basis. Additionally, counsel for the defendants have worked with the Court Information Security Officers to obtain necessary security clearances, and that process is currently continuing but not complete. The parties have also engaged in substantive pretrial discussions regarding potential pretrial filings or resolutions, and those discussions are ongoing.¹

For the foregoing reasons, the parties respectfully request the conference be adjourned, and, following consultation with chambers as to suitable dates, that September 13, 2023 be set for the next pretrial conference. The Government further requests that time be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act from the date of this letter through any date set by the court in response to this motion. The ends of justice served by the requested exclusion outweigh the best interests of the public and the defendants in a speedy trial because it will facilitate the continued provision and review of discovery, resolution to the clearance process, and ongoing discussions between the parties. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7). Defense counsel consent to this request.

Respectfully submitted,
